

Condé Nast Traveler

How to Raise a Kid Who Loves to Ski

Ski resorts have been tapping into off-mountain fun for several years now, so even if you don't stay in the village, a quick shuttle ride or drive can get you to cosmic bowling in Vail at Bol, a gold-mining themed escape room in Park City, an authentic horse-drawn sleigh ride to a cozy dinner in a cabin near Big Sky Resort at Lone Mountain Ranch (my 11-year-old son's favorite), and even a full-day visit in Yellowstone National Park, which is blissfully uncrowded in winter.

<https://www.cntraveler.com/story/how-to-raise-a-kid-who-loves-to-ski>