

7 Cool California Girls' Getaways

With the weather warming up and the wildflowers in bloom, California's coast is calling your name for a much-needed getaway with your girls. The Golden State is home to bustling cities, quiet coastal towns, forest retreats and more, meaning that no matter who you're traveling with, you'll be able to find a weekend respite ideal for every gal pal in your group.

Pack your bags and toss us the keys, we've rounded up seven of California's most exciting getaways and the best accommodations in the area you'll want to visit for years to come.

Hotel Joaquin

📍 Laguna Beach, California

Immerse yourself in the Laguna Beach life at Hotel Joaquin, which is situated right along the coastline. In between exploring the small, artsy beach town, check out the hotel's adventure package. For the thrill-seekers of the group, the adventure package comes stocked with boogie boards, diving gear, hiking gear, city bikes and more!

